Getting To Know You

"One song leads to another, one friend to another friend, so I'll travel along with a friend and a song."
—Wilfrid Wilson Gibson

Hey, y'all! Sophomores Kavitta Baman, Joe Smith, and Mary Ellen Hunt smother former Pennsylvanian Naomi Walker with some Southern hospitality.

We're all Tigers now! Tiger mascot Ryan Crowe extends a warm Tucker welcome to new student Camille Silvera.

Modern-day Hamlet, Prince of Denmark: Exchange student Fleming Sorensen and Sarah Rogers ham it up between classes.

Hangin' out on Main Street: Chuck Thomas, Daniel Hewett, and Matt Taylor chat with a couple of former Tucker students at Tucker Days.

Friends on and off the field: Junior softball players Sejal Zaveri, Susan Hudgins, and Noelle Ashmore hang out at Tucker Days.

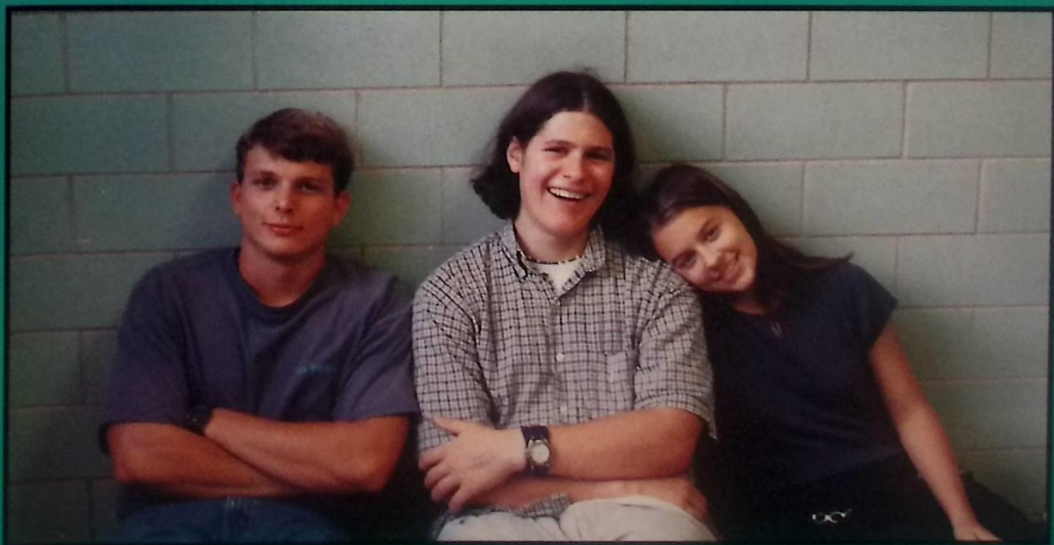

New faces, new friends: New student Tabatha Pugh has a C-wing party with seniors Michelle Sandberg, Kristie Brown, and Lynsey Pitts.

Mixing it up: Former Shamrock student Kim Yath and former Henderson student Crystal Webb mix in with Tucker veterans Dayna Wright, Tia Samuel, and Gie Na Yu.

Find the Shamrock guy! A crowd of seniors surround former Shamrock student Brian Stewart during lunch in front of the school.

Taking time out: Former Shamrock student Chris Lindsey and juniors Daniel Morrison and Tori Goddard take a break from another stressful day of yearbook. (Ha, Ha!)

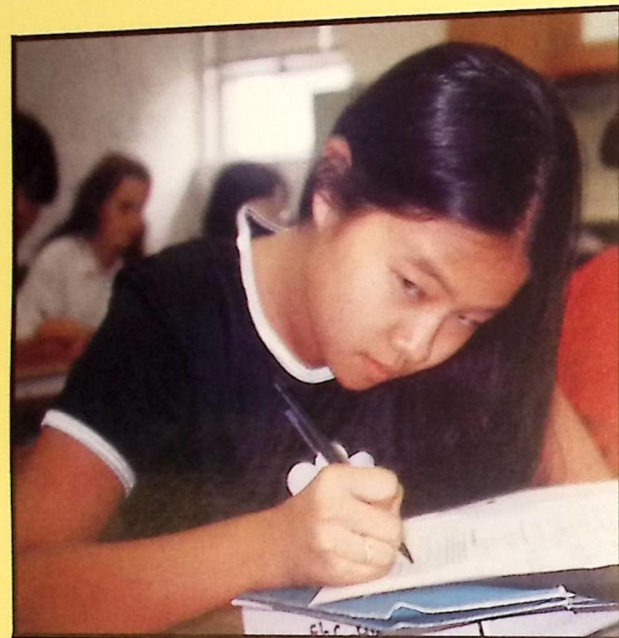

What's your name again? Senior Jennifer Honess talks with ex-Shamrock student Shawn Thornton.

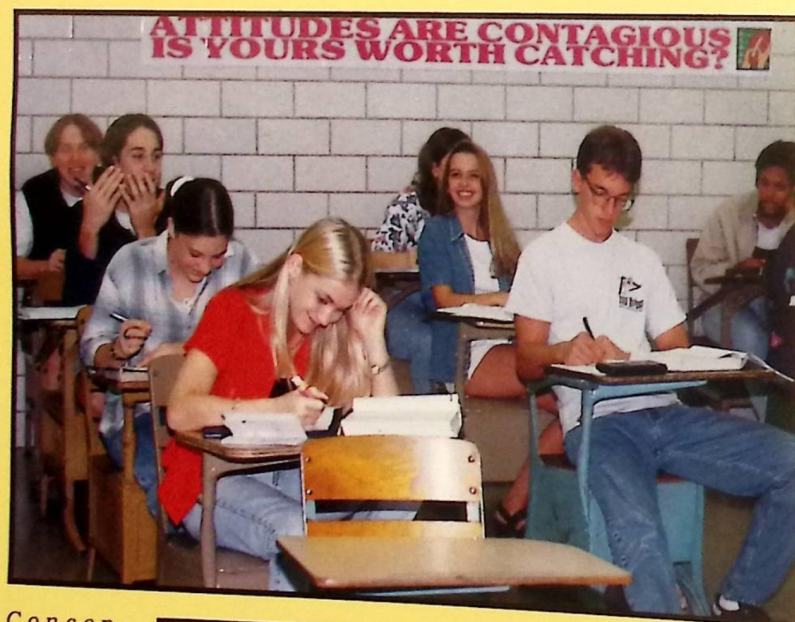

We Can Be Taught!

"Freedom to learn is the first necessity of guaranteeing that man himself shall be self-reliant enough to be free." -- Franklin D. Roosevelt

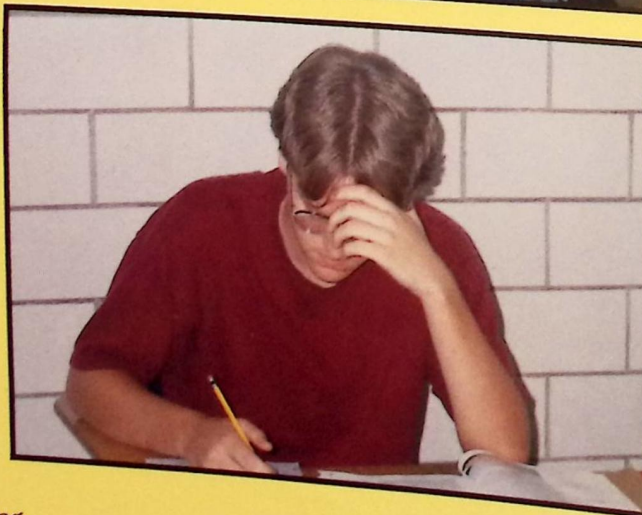

Watch those roaming eyes! Kathy Kwon concentrates in science class.

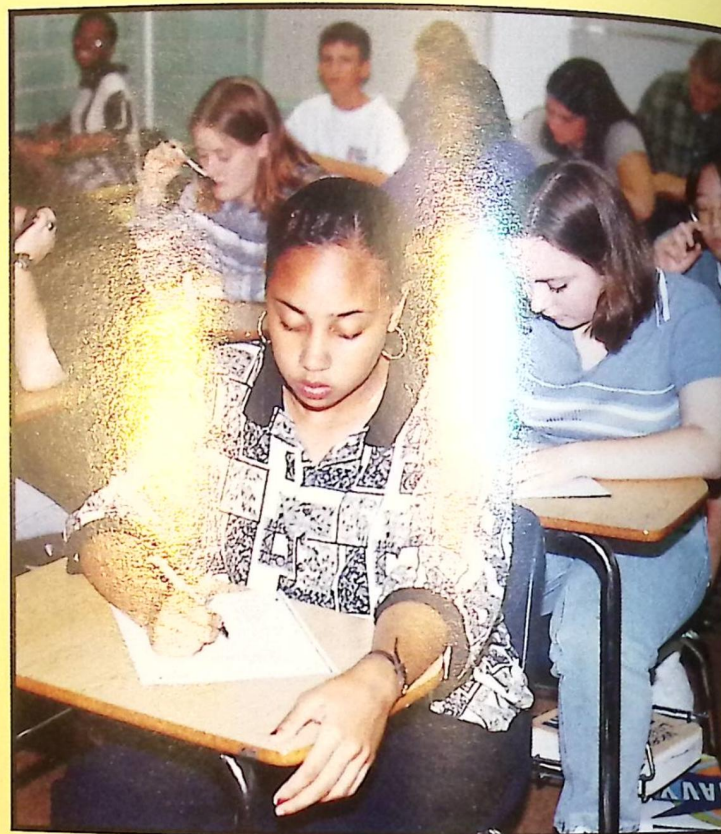

Stop laughing! This is a take! Here Mrs. Gail Junot's math class displays their lack of skill at poker faces.

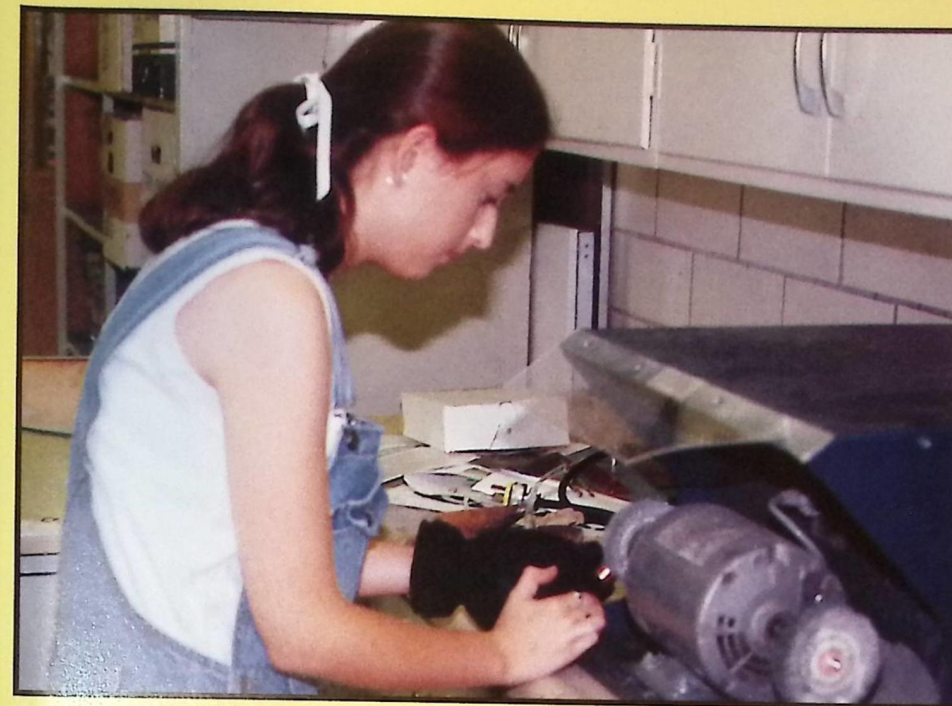

Concentrate.... The camera catches senior Tommy Hairston consumed with diligent study.

iVete! Ms. Joyce Walters (we think) hides behind a Spanish book.

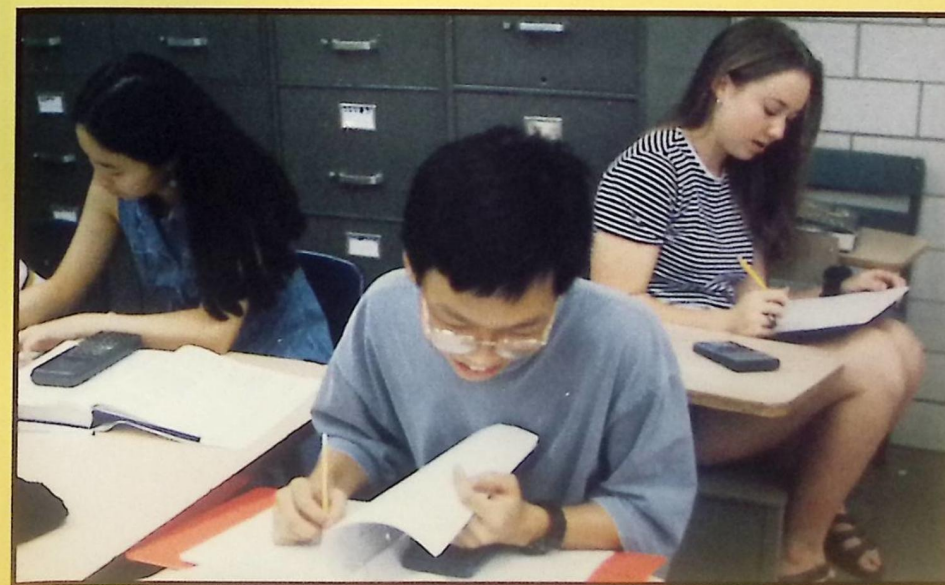

Watch out! It spits! Senior Jessie Staska braves the temperamental polish machine in jewelry-making class.

Workin' girl: Something brings a smile to the face of sophomore Kavitta Baman.

Uh, Houston, we have a problem. Talarrious Parks does his best computer Whiz-Bang imitation.

Last minute cram: Sue Ann Te, Charlie Lin, and Elizabeth Bryan work on everything but the yearbook during 4th period.

Is this bubbling a good thing? Dayna Wright, Tia Samuel, Kathy Kwon, and Mr. Carl Pfaff experiment—all in the name of science.

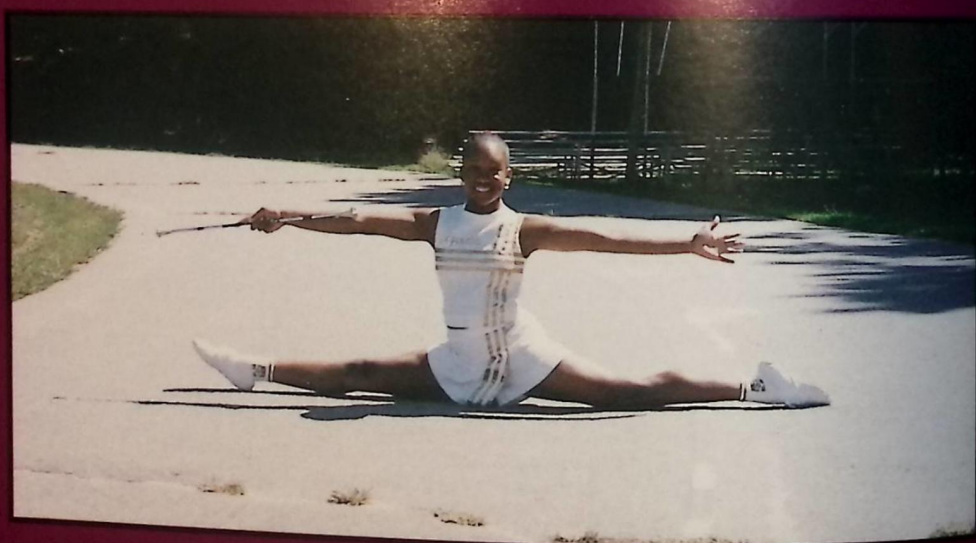

A Few of Our Favorite Things

"Nothing great was ever accomplished without enthusiasm." - Ralph Waldo Emerson

Senior Anna Lee was seen playing the violin during her free time. She received an award for her performance at the annual school assembly. Anna is a member of the school orchestra and will be performing at the annual school assembly. She is also a member of the school choir.

Junior Jeffery Broughton was awarded last year for his singing talent by winning the Miss Tuckers Pageant. He sings every year and is a member of the school choir. He also sings in the church choir "The Song of Songs".

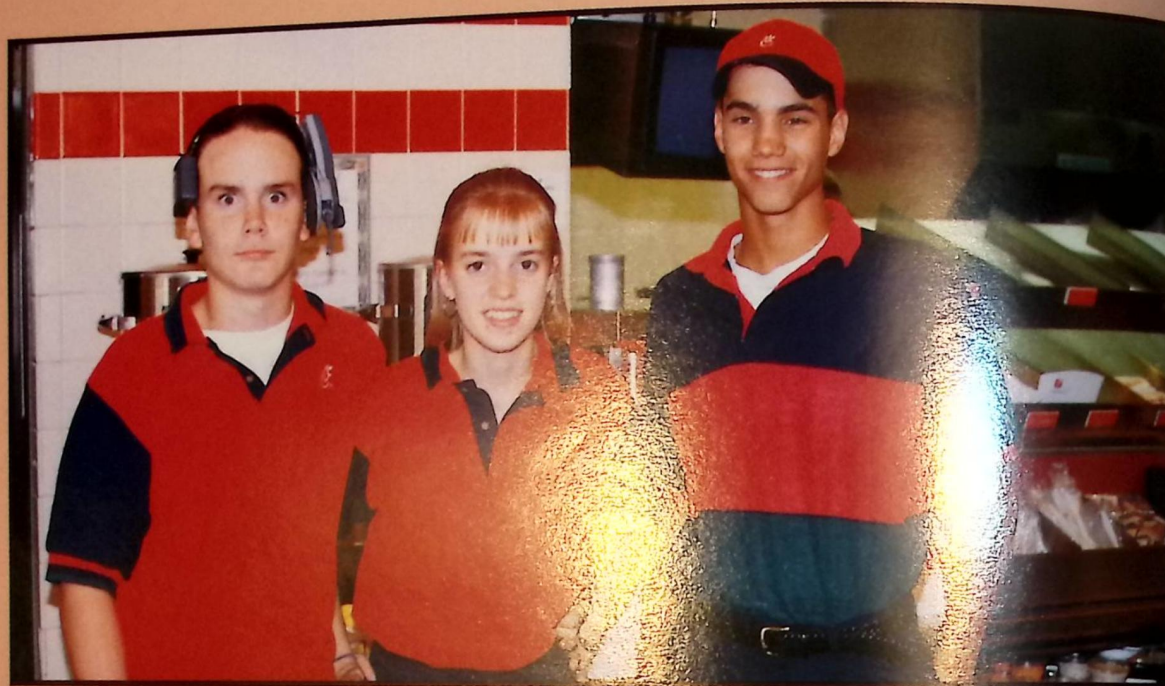

Freshman Brandon Brown has been having a great time. He is a member of the school choir and will be performing at the annual school assembly. He is also a member of the school orchestra.

Senior Jonathan Smith was awarded last year for his singing talent by winning the Miss Tuckers Pageant. He sings every year and is a member of the school choir. He also sings in the church choir "The Song of Songs".

Heigh Ho, Heigh Ho....

"Every man's work...is always a portrait of himself."--Samuel Butler

Paper or plastic? Cashier Markebba Alford, a senior, is hard at work at Cub Foods.

Trick or treat?! A group of Tucker students get ready for Halloween.

Can I help you? Jessica Harshman labors at Bed, Bath, and Beyond.

What size would you like? Senior Jadia Peoples sells shoes at Finish Line.

Want a lid with that? Sophomore April Farmer fixes a drink at Chick-fil-A.

No... they're not ours! Jennifer Honess and Christy Rolin play with the kiddies at Grandma's Finest day-care center.

Hello Kitty or Keroppi? Junior Amy Strickland aims to please her customers at Sanrio Surprises.

Cash or credit? Senior saleswoman Joy Dorsey works hard for the money at J.C. Penney.

One scoop or two? Melanie Smith chills out behind the counter at Baskin Robbins.

Role models? Seniors Shawn Thorton, Patrick Egge, and Egan West hold the kids down on the playground.

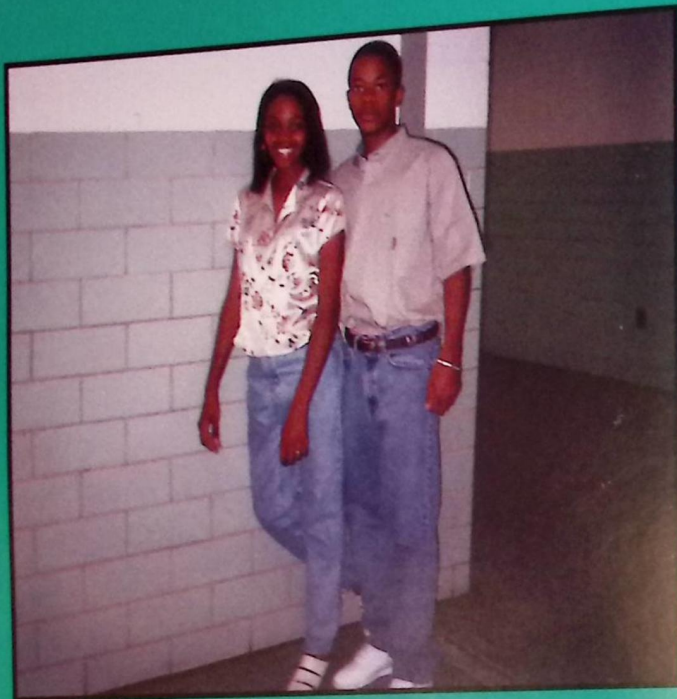

One employee not on strike: Trena Taylor anticipating the crowd at Publix.

Here's Looking At You, Kid

"Seek the fashion which truly fits and befits you. You will always be in fashion if you are true to yourself..." -Maya Angelou

We look good in anything! Junior Jaffany Broughton and senior Travis Culbertson strike a pose on the corner of B-wing intersection.

As if?! Senior Jennifer Honess sports the shades, while senior Matt Hunt prefers his Georgia Bulldog cap on sunny days.

A little side: Modeling a white shirt and brown wide-leg pants, senior Hang Nye takes the subtle casual look.

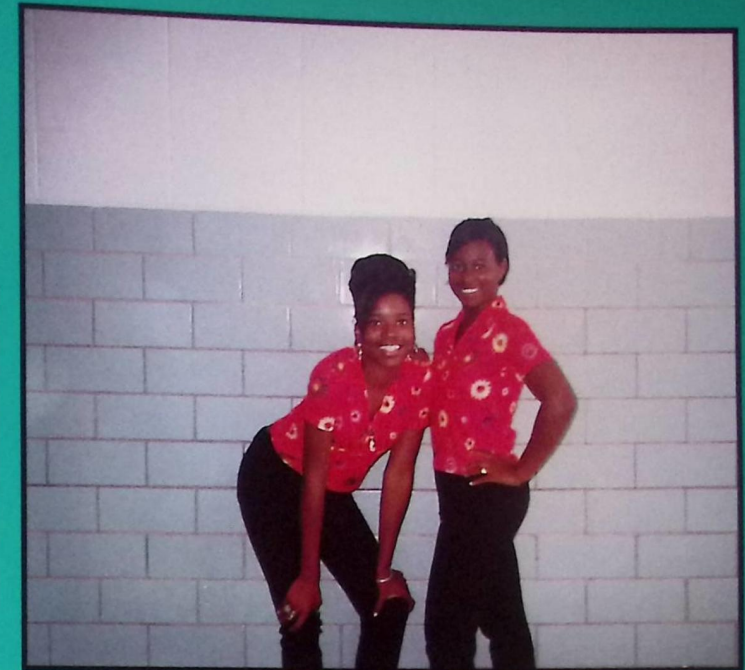

What's up? Senior Chris Wright displays the sophisticated khaki look.

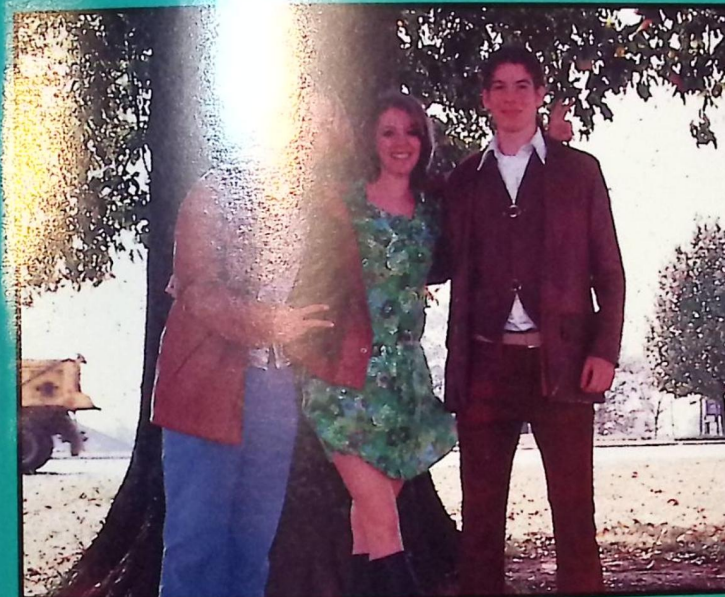

Lady in Black: Kia Tillery is purely elegant in a black top and black skirt.

Yeah, I know I'm cute! Junior Amanda Barbano always dresses in style.

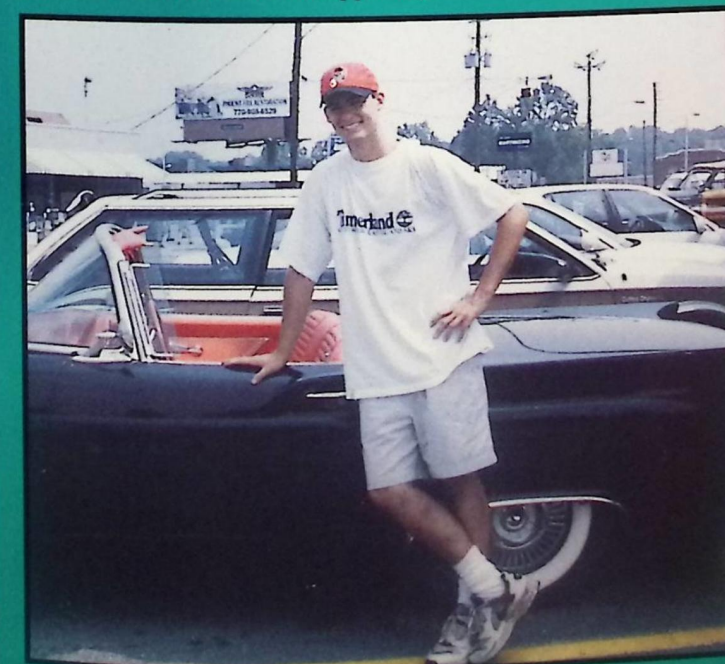

Twin day: Brandie Hollis and Dené Lynn are set for twin day during Homecoming Spirit Week.

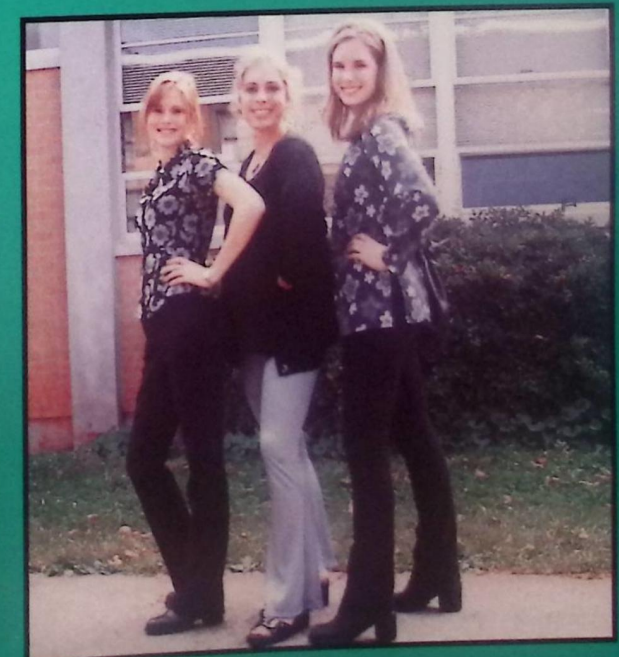

Peace. Junior Adam Kelley, Ms. McMullan, and senior Ben Bankhead revisit the '60s on hippie day.

They're back... The Denim Darlings-- enough said!

Goin' casual: Junior Jeff Rice stands beside his "dream car."

Disc, anyone? Senior Michelle Sandberg, junior Amanda Barbano, and junior Elisabeth Bell model the '70s look on soul day.

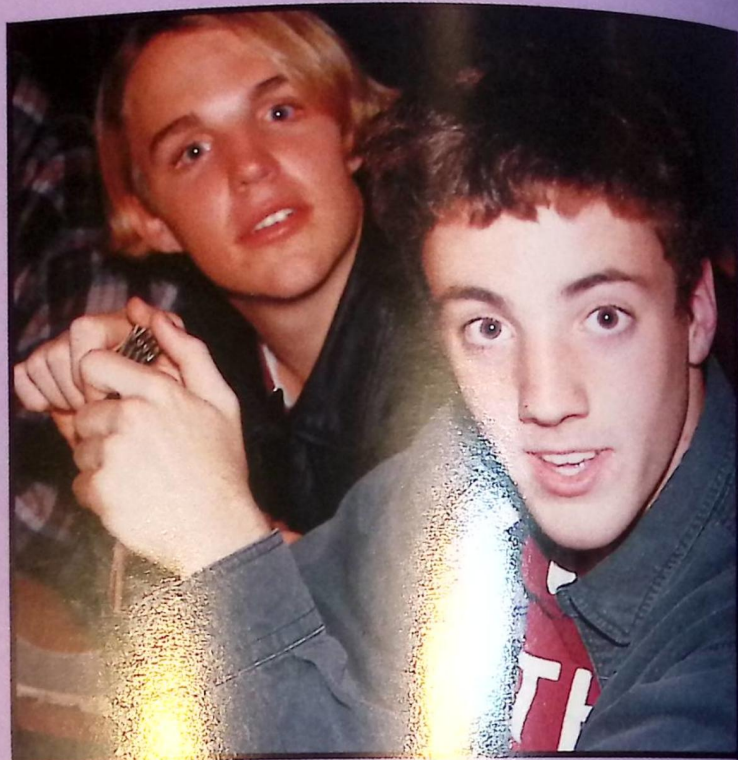

Tric
een.

Puttin' On The Ritz

"The experience of this sweet life...."--Dante

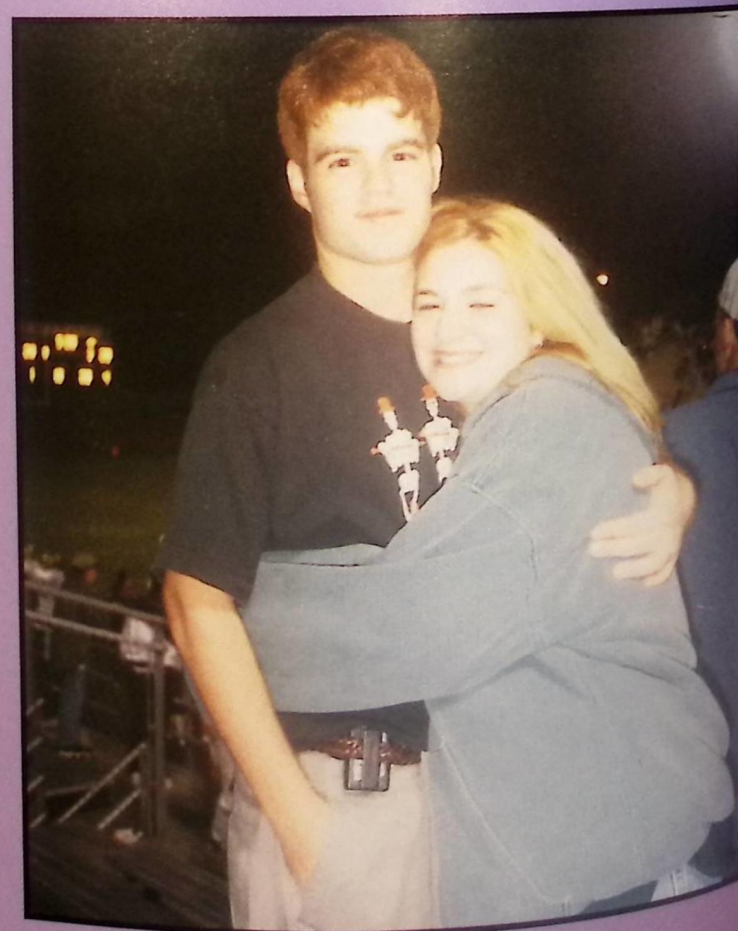

"Aren't we cute?" Sabrina Vellino and David Sherrill celebrate a win for their Tigers.

Guys Night Out: Juniors Jason Prats, David Johnson, and Drew Lutz get together at Bennigan's.

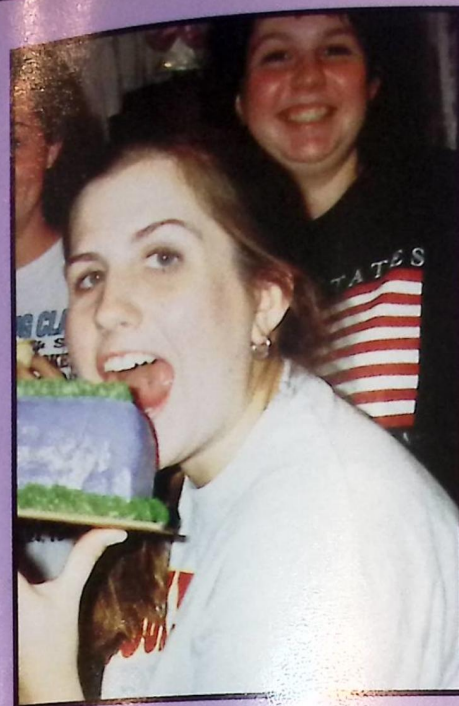

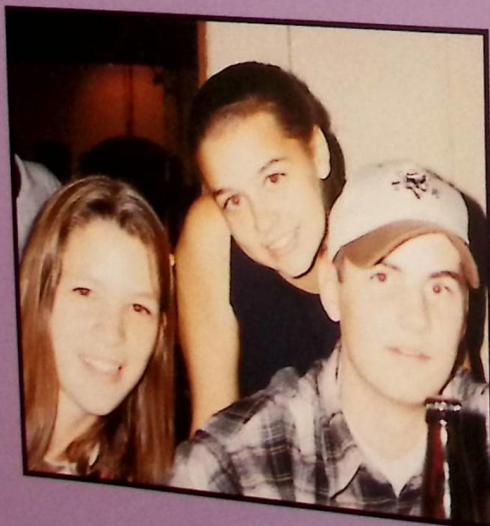

Huh...? Juniors Adam Kelley and senior Justin Boner look dazed and confused.

Cuddling up in the cold: Seniors Egan West and Alicia Kuntz keep warm at the game.

Out on the Town: Susan Hudgins, Tori Goddard, and Brent Speer have fun on a Friday night.

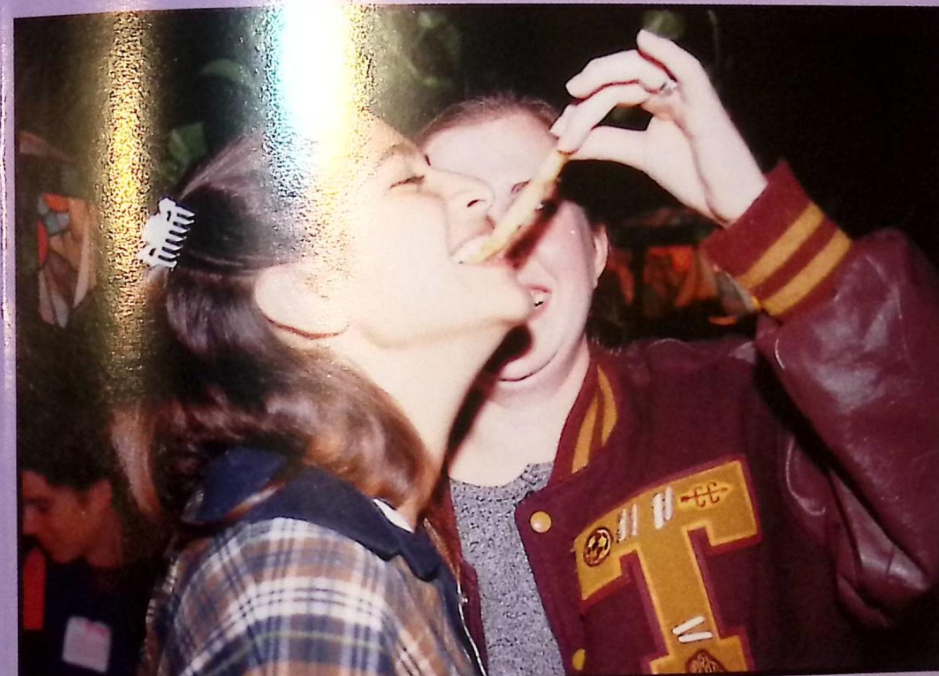

Piggin' out: Katie Foxworth, with icing on her face, and Jaime Crane watch Meredith Kimble chow down on her birthday cake.

Are we hyper? Doug Little crashes down on top of Ahren Noga, Adam Kelley, and Justin Boner.

Wie geht's? Maylin Wartenberg and Kerstin Muller share some good laughs after a football game.

Are they hot? Sabrina Vellino and Meredith Kimble test the fries.

Paper, Rock, Scissors: Coca-Cola owns this town.

Tigers on the town: Juniors Sue Ann Te, Jason Prats, and Drew Lutz eat out after the game.

No Place Like Home

"(M)an begins to discern that spirit alone can endow his life with highest meaning..."
--Carl Jung

We're showing too much of our tiger spirit! The Varsity Male Cheerleaders show their spirit at the game.

We're athletes too! The Varsity Male Cheerleaders know they're all that.

Is Tucker in da house? The football team waves at the crowd during the Tucker Days Parade.

Showing off our new tiger! The tiger, Ryan Crowe, keeps the fans hyped.

Showing spirit on the streets of Tucker: Mary Ellen Hunt and Susquanna Martin show their tiger spirit while they dance in the parade.

It ain't just a tiger party! A group of seniors and juniors get together outside after home games to show off their Tiger spirit wear.

We've got that tiger pride! A group of girls from the band, drill team, and majorette squad gets into the spirit of the big season ahead at Tucker Days.

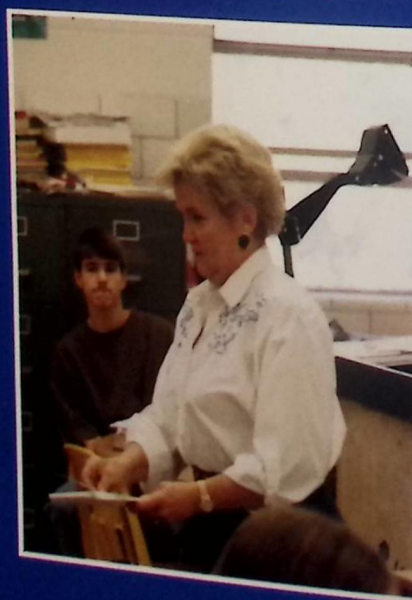

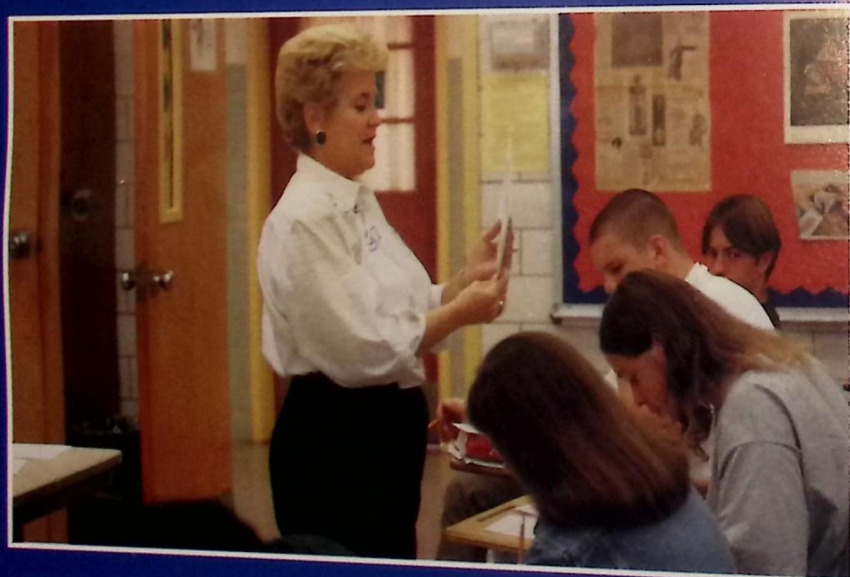

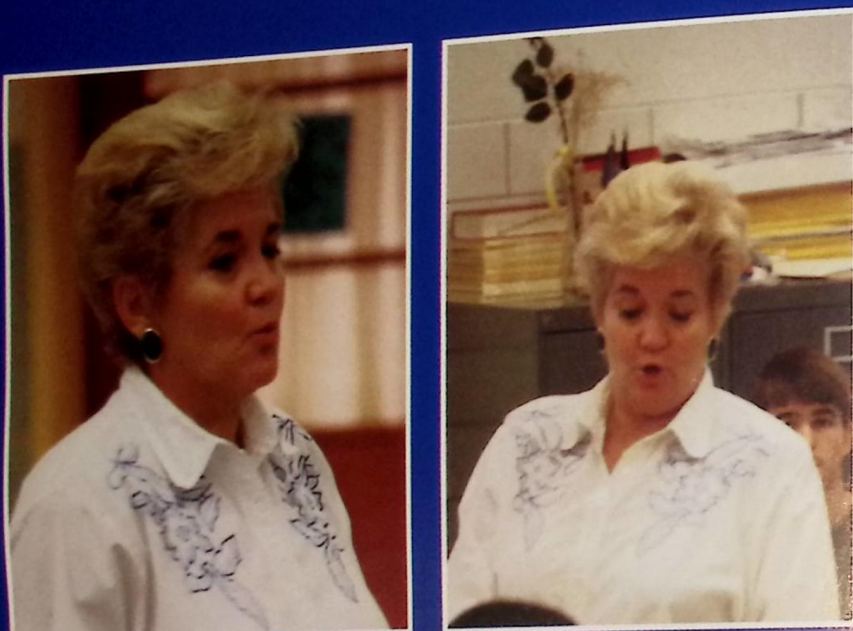

We're all tigers now! Juniors Amanda Barbano, Beth White, Laura Holbrook, and Elisabeth Bell and seniors Tracey Harton and Lynsey Pitts get ready for the big game.

A Star is Born

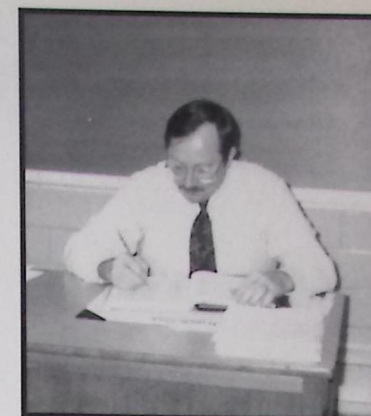

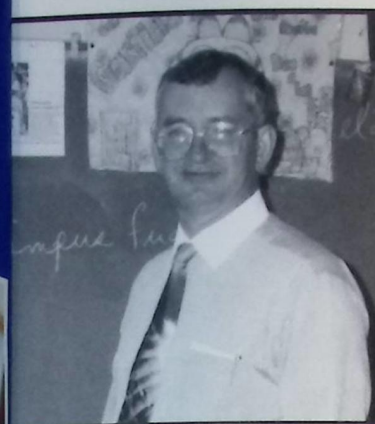

"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops." —Henry Adams

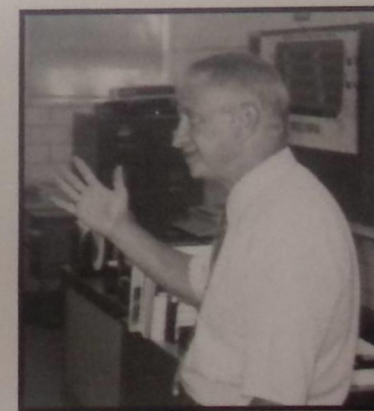

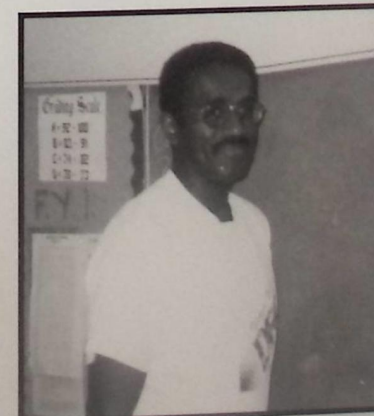

From eighth grade Georgia History to twelfth grade AP European History, the Class of 1997 has been inspired to a higher sense of adventure by Mrs. Penny Stovall. In addition, she has consistently shown a genuine concern for her students and a rare enthusiasm for life.

Because of her friendly social glow and her extensive involvement with Tucker High, Mrs. Stovall is Tucker's true "Southern belle." Originally teaching at Tucker from 1971 to 1976, she left to raise a family. She returned in the fall of 1992 just as this year's graduating class was beginning its high school career. Over and over, Mrs. Stovall has shared her great love for traveling, her fine appreciation for world art, and her deep respect for the Renaissance.

Because of her professional commitment and her personal courtesies, Tucker's class of 1997 has proudly selected for the 1997 Tiger dedication, Mrs. Penny Stovall.

Senior Superlatives

Senior Superlatives are students chosen by their peers for their accomplishments. They display leadership and involvement both inside and outside the classroom.

Senior Superlatives

Ryan Crowe

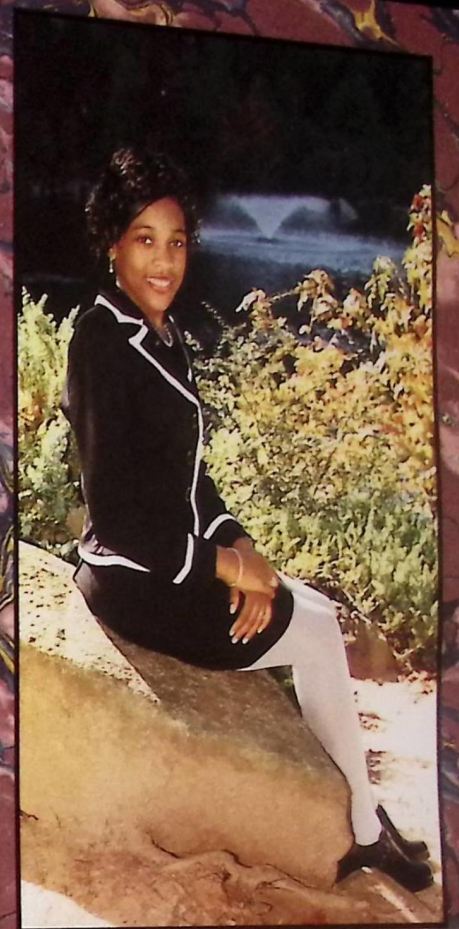

Ryan Crowe is known for his humorous, outgoing, spontaneous, cooperative personality, which is frequently demonstrated while in his Tiger mascot costume. During his years at Tucker, he has received many awards and honors, including letters for participation in Cross Country, Swim team, Softball management, and Mascot spirit. He is also a member of Anchor Crew and is a Teacher Cadet. After graduation, he plans to attend Clemson University. Eventually he plans to have a family and a job he enjoys. When faced with adversity, he finds strength from God, parents, friends, and his own positive outlook.

Mr. & Miss THS

Mr. and Miss THS are students chosen by friends and classmates to represent the senior class.

Malaika Pepper

Malaika Pepper is known throughout Tucker as a friendly and outgoing individual. While at Tucker, she has participated in Marching Band, football and basketball cheerleading, and peer helpers. She is senior editor of the Tiger yearbook as well as Senior Class president. Malaika represented her class on Homecoming Court her junior and senior year. She also has participated in the Miss Tucker pageant. In her spare time Malaika enjoys reading, dancing, playing the piano and tremons. Malaika plans to attend UVA and become a successful microbiologist who works for CDC.

Senior Superlatives

Markebba Alford

Markebba Alford is a friendly, enthusiastic, and caring individual. Markebba has been involved in FBLA and Science Club, and after serving three years on staff, she is now the associate editor of the 1997 Tiger yearbook. In her spare time, Markebba enjoys playing softball and spending time with her friends. When faced with adversity, Markebba turns to her strong faith in God and her loving family for assistance. After high school, she plans to attend the University of Georgia and eventually become a doctor. She will miss her many friends at Tucker High School.

Rudolpho Aubert

Athletic, caring, and funny are a few words that describe Rudolpho Aubert. He enjoys playing basketball in which he has received many awards including Leadership award and Most Offensive player. He was also the best free throw shooter in the county last year. At Shalrook, he was voted Homecoming King his sophomore year. At Tucker, he has enjoyed making new friends, and he also enjoys the school spirit of Tucker students. Rudolpho plans to attend either the University of Georgia or Georgia Tech and major in engineering. He would also like to continue to play basketball through college.

Vivian Ball

Optimistic, honest, and energetic are just a few words to describe Vivian Ball. She believes that a person should always look at people with love in one's heart. In her spare time Vivian enjoys reading, jogging, volunteering in political campaigns, and doing public service work. While at Tucker, Vivian has been captain of Varsity Drill Team, president of Anchor Club, vice president of the Senior Class, and vice president of FCS. Vivian hopes to attend the United States Naval Academy and to have a career in public service.

Justin Boner

Justin Boner is an optimistic, humorous, and intelligent individual. While at Tucker he has received numerous honors including an Academic letter, awards in Latin and physics, the National Math Exam award, the Georgia Certificate of Merit, and Furman Scholar. A member of NHS, Justin has also been actively involved in Tucker's swim team and tennis team. In his spare time he enjoys hiking, camping, frisbee, and golf. Justin's biggest influences have been his parents through their endless love, support, and advice. Justin plans to attend college and become an environmentalist conservationist.

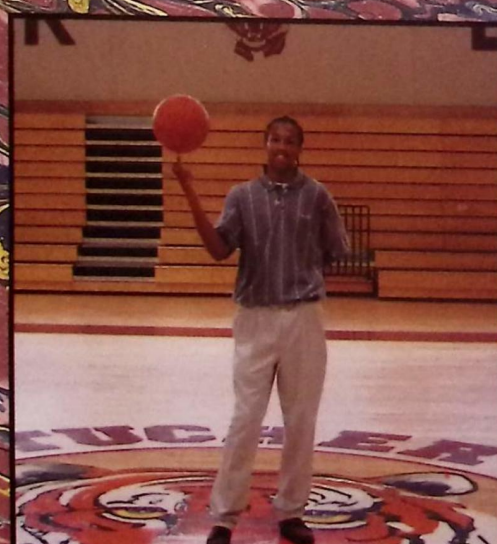

Ikeranda Carter

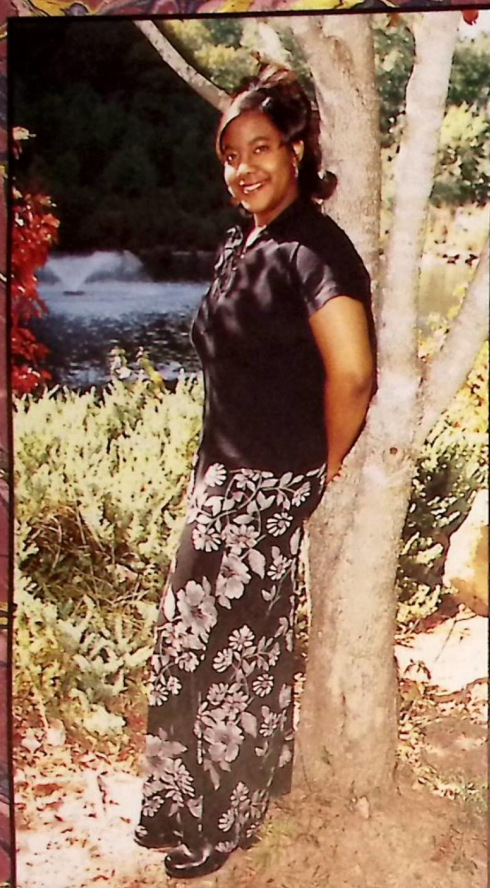

When one thinks of Ikeranda Carter, one thinks of a caring, sweet, enthusiastic individual. She is the one who always has a big smile on her face and appreciates people for what they have on the inside and not on the outside. While at Tucker, she has been active in Drill Team, FBLA, ROTC, and the Miss Tucker pageant. In her spare time, she enjoys shopping, reading, and visiting new places. Ikeranda plans to become a registered nurse and earn both a bachelor's and a master's degree. She thanks God, her mom, and all her friends for supporting her in everything she does.

Rachel Cornish

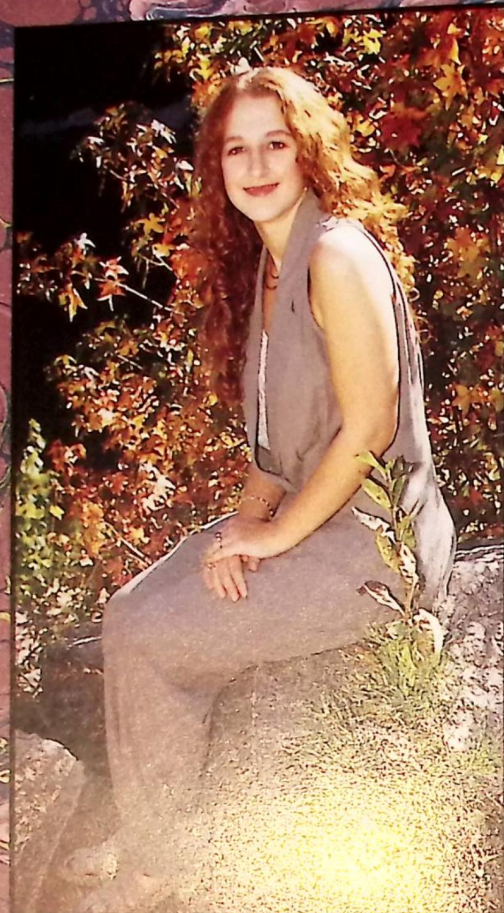

Rachel Cornish was chosen by the senior class as a true leader. She is hard working, intelligent, and always friendly and smiling. A member of the Tiger yearbook staff, Rachel has been rewarded with many academic accolades, some of which are the Georgia Certificate of Merit and the DAR American History award. Her parents have been the biggest influence on her life, and she draws her strength from them and her religious beliefs. Rachel plans to attend Brigham Young University and later pursue a career in social work and raise a family.

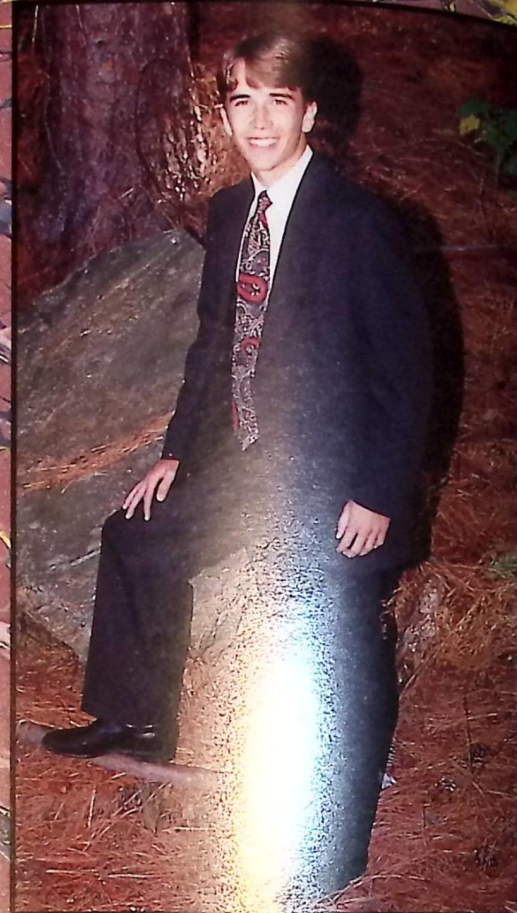

Cheresa Edmund

Cheresa Edmund, better known as "Rea", enjoys playing baseball, spending time with her friends, and dancing. Her aspirations in life are to become a lawyer and possibly a judge, after attending the University of Georgia. Making Honor Roll and serving as Senior Class president are just a few of the accomplishments Cheresa has made. Cheresa's mom, an influential and admirable person in her life, reminds her, "Success is the key to whatever you endeavor. Chart your goal with faith, and anything can be accomplished." Cheresa has enjoyed meeting new people at Tucker despite having to adjust to a new school her senior year.

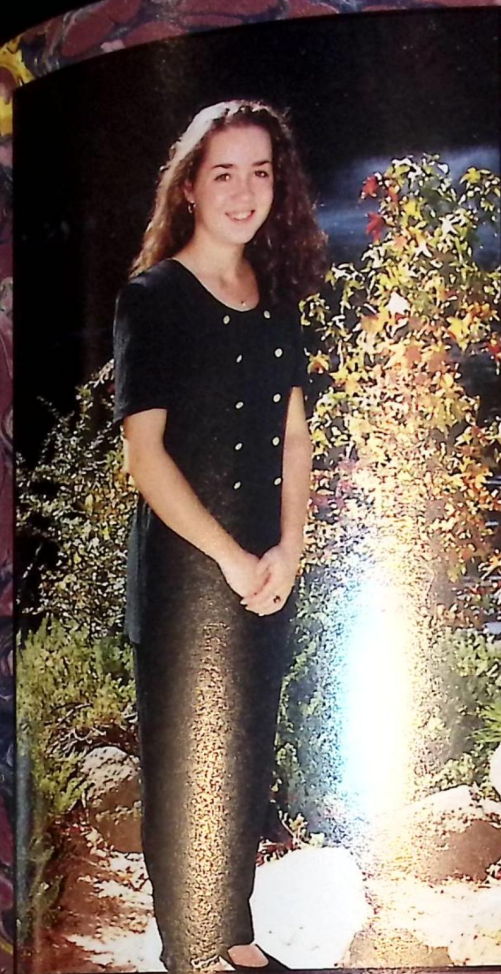

Kristie Ellis

When one thinks of Kristie Ellis, a dependable, out-going, and caring individual comes to mind. She finds her strength to overcome adversity through her faith in God. Kristie most admires individuality, perseverance, and strong will. Her best friend Lara, who has been by her side through every major event in her life, has been her biggest influence. She enjoys soccer, acting, writing, dancing, playing the piano, and traveling. Kristie has received many honors, including membership in Beta Club and selection for the Homecoming Court her senior year at Tucker. Kristie plans to be an actress and a film director.

Andy Evans

Andy Evans is known through Tucker as a multi-talented, humorous, determined, athletic individual. Andy plans to earn a chemistry degree and have a career in medicine. Andy loves playing soccer and has received many awards, including Best Offensive player, Most Valuable player, Coach's award, and DeKalb County All-Star. For academic awards, Andy has received a Georgia Certificate of Merit and was a Presbyterian Junior Fellow. He also enjoys playing the guitar and hanging out with his friends. Andy believes that his mother, friends, teachers, and God have helped him succeed throughout his high school years.

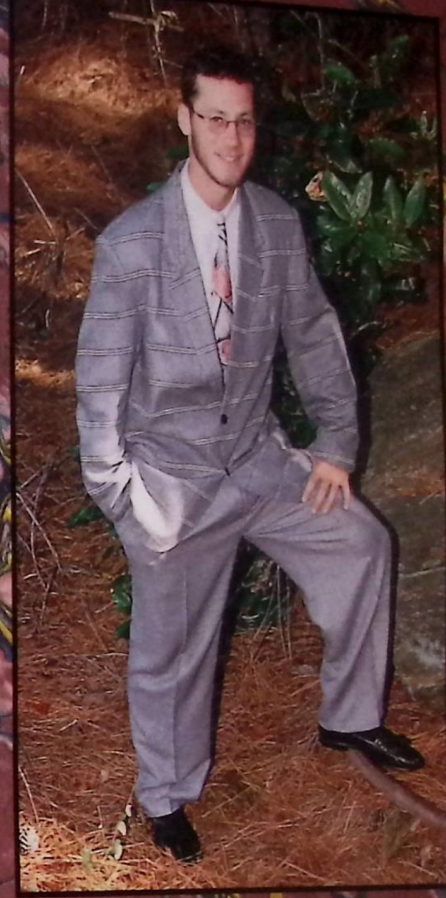

Katie Foxworth

Katie Foxworth's excellence in athletics and academics has demonstrated her leadership and organizational skills. In addition to receiving All-State Honorable Mention and selection for the GACA State All-Star game for softball and an Erskine Fellow Scholarship award, Katie has earned an academic letter and a Georgia Certificate of Merit. She currently serves as senior editor on the Tiger yearbook. She also lettered in basketball. Katie's love for Gone With the Wind film novel and movie, has made her an authority on the subject. She plans to major in English at Berry College or UGA and eventually become a biographer or work with film preservation.

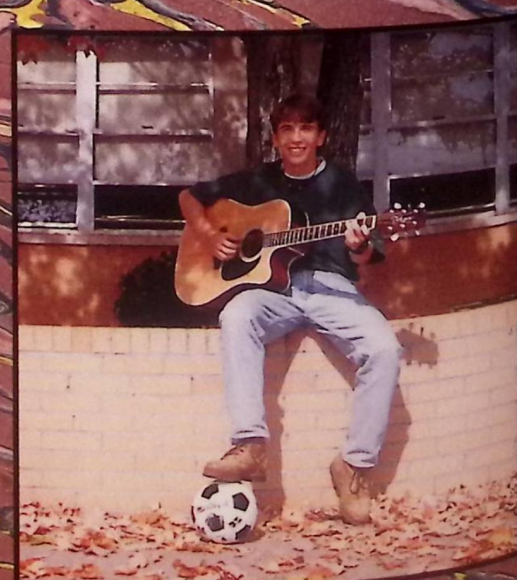

Oneisha Freeman

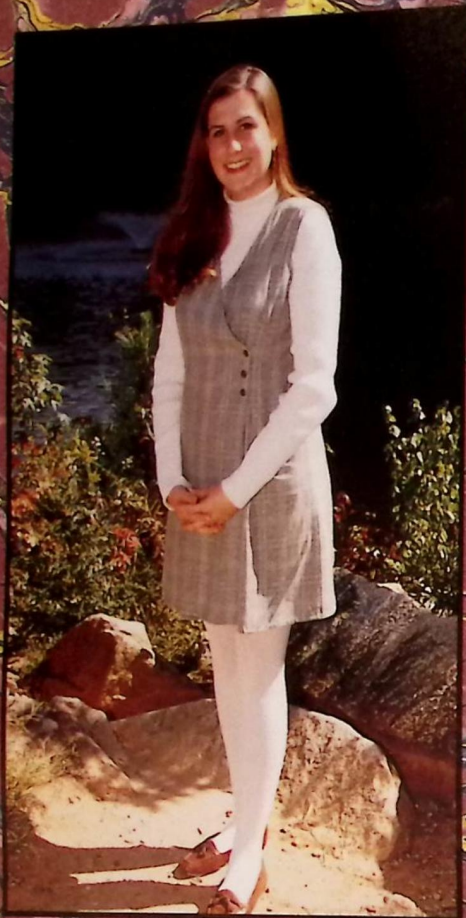

When one thinks of Oneisha Freeman, the adjectives outgoing, energetic, and kind come to mind. She enjoys football, softball, baton twirling, playing the trumpet, and shopping. While at Tucker, Oneisha has lettered in Varsity softball, has received Most Improved majorette, and has been Majorette Squad captain and Junior Class president. Her favorite pastime has been going to football games and cheering for Tucker. Oneisha plans to attend Morris Brown College and major in engineering. After college she plans to complete her graduate degree at Georgia Tech and become a biomedical engineer.

Jeremy Hubbard

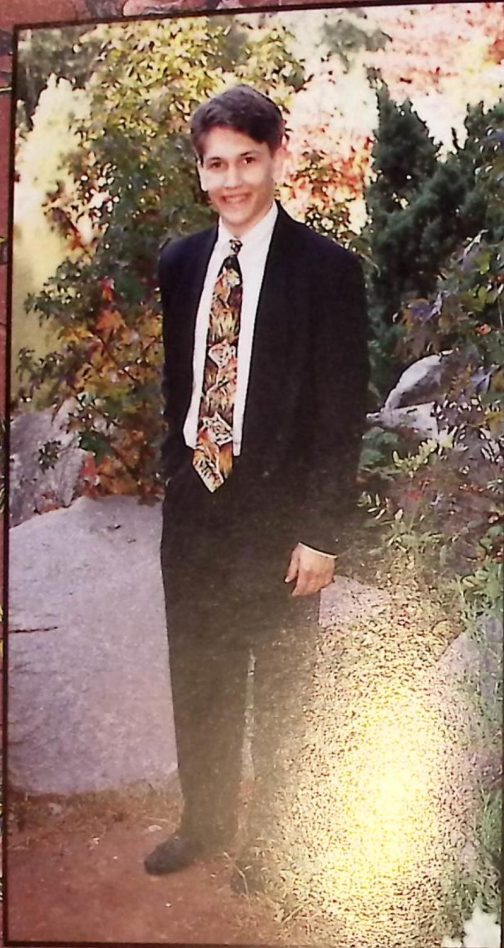

Jeremy Hubbard is a true team player and a reliable person who enjoys playing sports. Jeremy's many accomplishments include athletic awards in both soccer and basketball. Among his awards are Most Aggressive player in basketball, Best Defensive player in Junior Varsity soccer, and Most Valuable player in Varsity soccer. After graduation, he plans to attend Presbyterian College. Jeremy's goal in life is to play in the major leagues for soccer. When faced with adversity, Jeremy believes in going with the flow because there is a reason for everything. Jeremy has enjoyed the many honest and reliable friends that he has made here at Tucker.

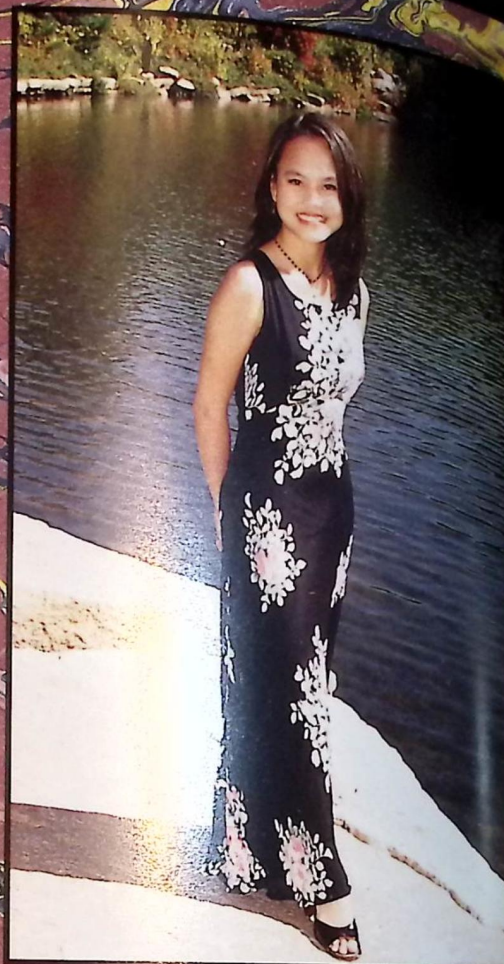

Meredith Kimble

Outgoing, loquacious, and independent are only a few of the wonderful characteristics of Meredith Kimble. Her successful leadership can be seen through her positions as president of the student body, president of Interact, president of the Spanish Club, secretary of Anchor Club, and project director of the Science Club. Her involvement in these and other activities has created lasting memories which she will cherish, especially the rich tradition at Tucker. She has also lettered in cross country, swimming, and soccer. With her strong religious beliefs and belief in a positive outlook, Meredith will surely succeed in law school and politics.

Chris Moseley

Chris Moseley is a friendly, honest, and out-going individual. He enjoys playing soccer, wrestling, and spending time with friends. Some of his accomplishments include holding the offices the parliamentarian for the National Honor Society, treasurer for the Senior Class, and historian for the Science Club. In addition, he has received an Honorable Mention award in geometry and was an officer for the Inreach program in FCS. Chris plans to attend medical school to become a pediatrician. While at Tucker, he has enjoyed building wonderful friendships.

Hang Nguyen

Hang Nguyen is recognized for her enthusiasm, sincerity, and dependability. Among her achievements are a Georgia Certificate of Merit award, FBLA Student of the Month award, and a United States Academic Achievement award. Hang most enjoys spending time with her friends and family and visiting Vietnam and France. She plans to attend UGA or DeVry and have a family. Hang receives strength to overcome adversity from her self-respect and self-confidence as well as support from her family and friends. She will most miss the friendly people and school spirit of Tucker High.

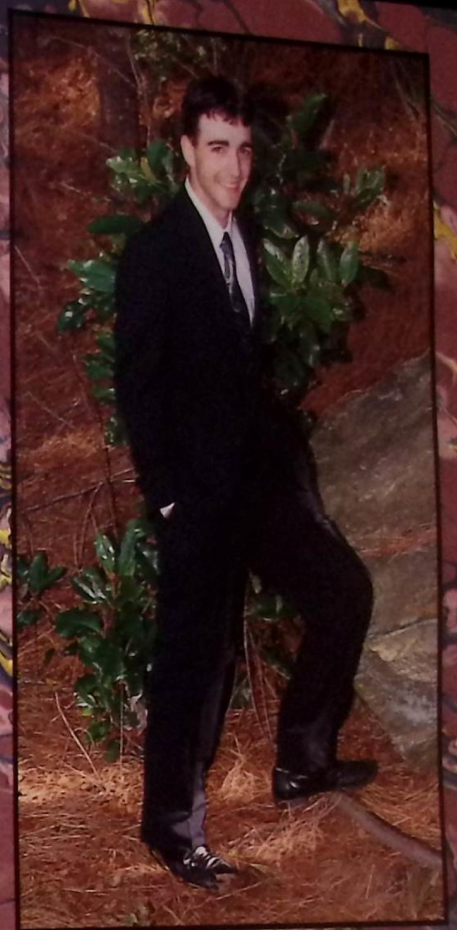

Jadia Peoples

Jadia Peoples is known throughout Tucker as a caring, friendly, considerate individual. While she has been at Tucker, her scholastic achievements have included an English award and a National Achievement award. Also, she has been a member of DECA, FBLA, Tucker's Finest, and Science Club. She currently serves as senior editor of photography for the Tiger yearbook. In her spare time, Jadia enjoys reading, talking with friends, going to the movies, and playing the piano. Jadia is looking forward to attending college and pursuing a career in medicine, and she believes that "if you can conceive it, then you can achieve it."

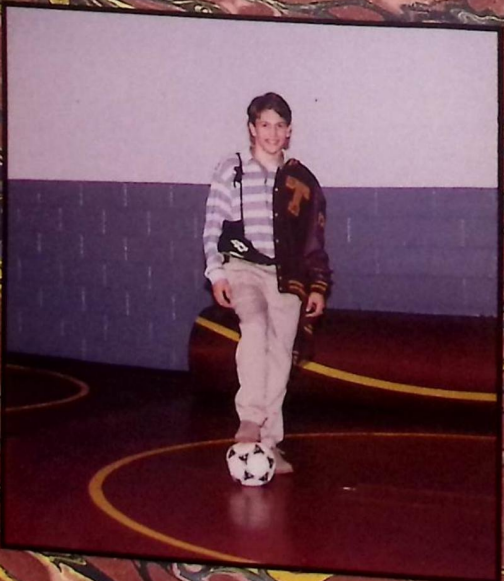

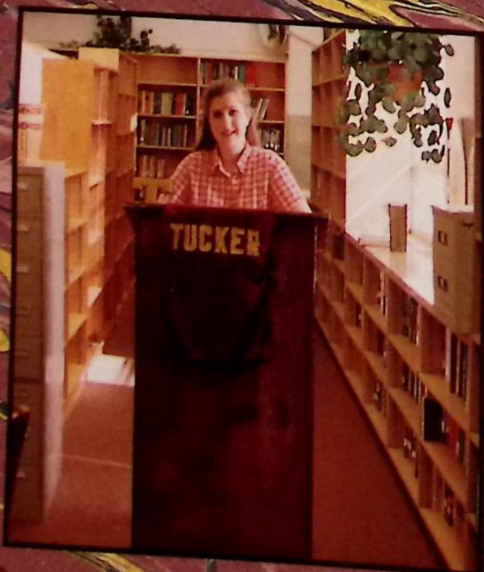

Kathryn Pirkle

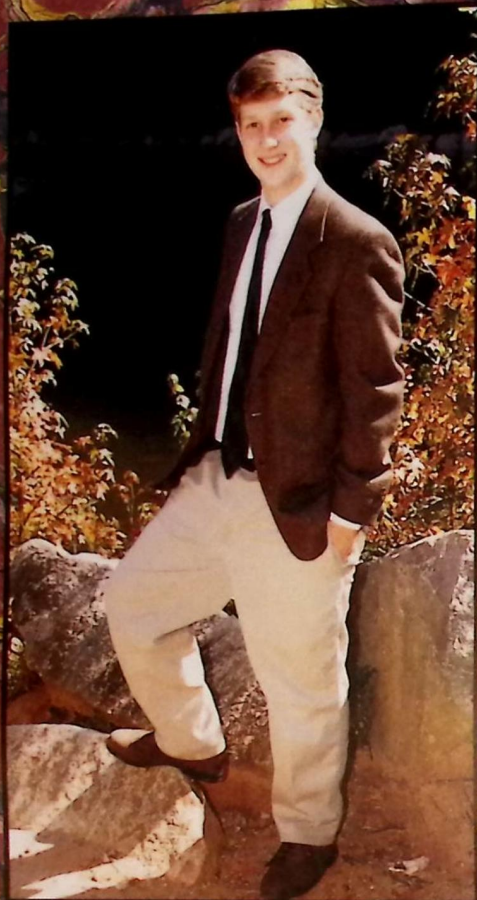

Kathryn Pirkle is an intelligent, determined, and caring person. When she is not playing soccer, Kathryn enjoys spending time with friends, drawing, talking on the telephone, and watching old black and white movies. Kathryn served as vice president for NHS her senior year. She has lettered in both academics and soccer and has received the Georgia Certificate of Merit award, MVP Soccer award, and the Furman Scholar award. Kathryn plans to go to college and graduate school, have a successful job, and start a family. While at Tucker, Kathryn has enjoyed the great friendships, the spirit of the students, and the overall support of the school.

Kevin Robbins

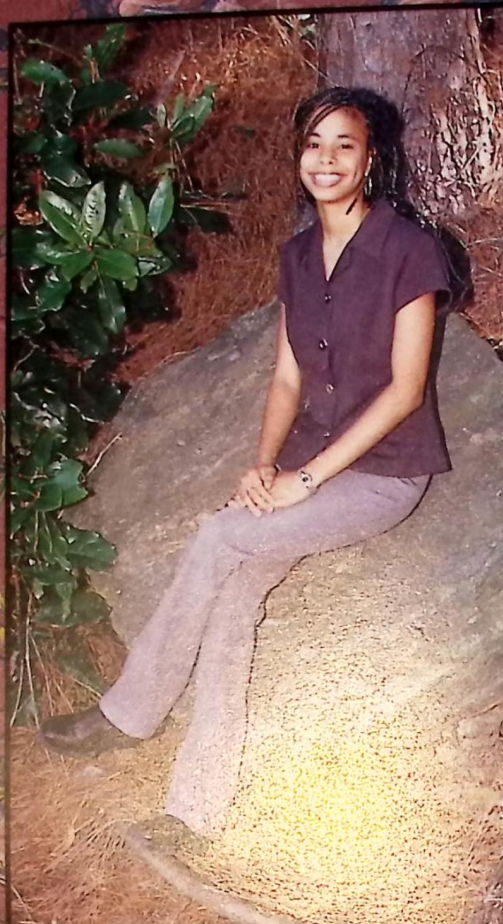

Kevin Robbins is known for being sensitive, caring, and compassionate. He enjoys drawing, writing poetry, and playing baseball. Kevin has received awards from French II and Beta Club. He has also won the 100% award and the Coach's award in baseball. Kevin plans to attend the University of Florida. When faced with adversity, Kevin uses personal philosophies, past experiences, and advice from people important to him to help him overcome obstacles. He has enjoyed meeting new people and making new friends while attending Tucker. Kevin admires those who accept people for their inner strength, not just outward appearance.

Brad Shadrix

During his years at Tucker, Brad Shadrix has proven himself to be a kind, humorous, and honest individual. Brad's positive attitude helps him succeed in everything he does. Brad has been both secretary and president of Interact Club and has lettered in academics, receiving the highest honors in geometry and Algebra II. He has also lettered in cross country and was a Male Varsity cheerleader. In his spare time, Brad enjoys listening to music, running, and dancing. He looks forward to attending the University of Georgia after graduation and plans on having a successful teaching career and raising a family.

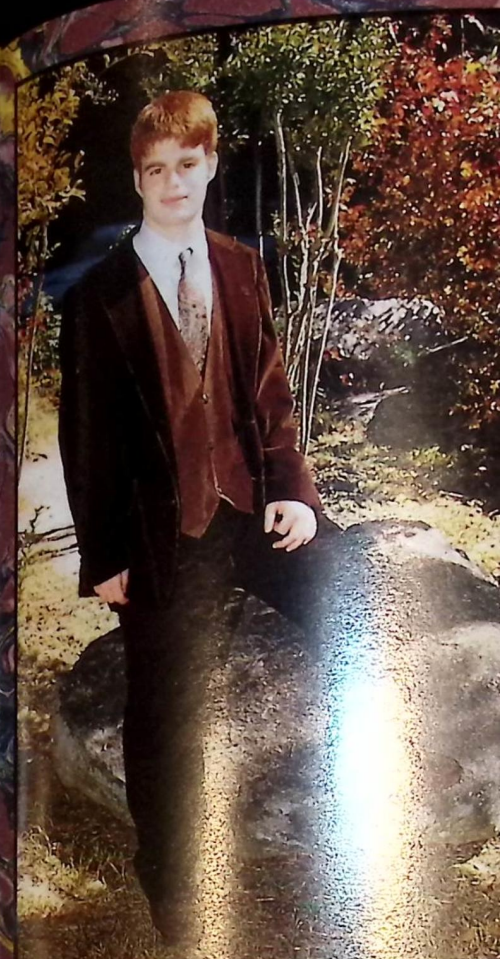

Jennifer Tuboku-Metzger

Friendly, caring, and happy are just a few characteristics of Jennifer Tuboku-Metzger. While at Tucker she has been active in track and field, cheerleading (receiving the Sherelle Billingsley award) and in Marching Band (receiving the High Stepper award). She was also crowned Homecoming Queen her senior year. In her spare time she enjoys dancing, swimming, and running. Jennifer's biggest influence has been her father, whom she considers to be a successful, wise, and humble man. She would like to go to either Spelman College or Emory University and become a veterinarian.

Melissa Walton

Melissa Walton is a friendly, outgoing, kind, and enthusiastic individual. While at Tucker, Melissa has been involved in many activities including cheerleading, gymnastics, and JROTC. She has received the Amanda Hart Smith award, the Most Spirited award in cheerleading and the 10.0 award in gymnastics. She was also chosen as Miss JROTC. In her spare time Melissa enjoys cheerleading, cooking, talking on the phone, and hanging out. When she graduates, she will miss the undying spirit of IHS and the football and basketball games. She plans to attend college, become a successful radiologist, and start a family.

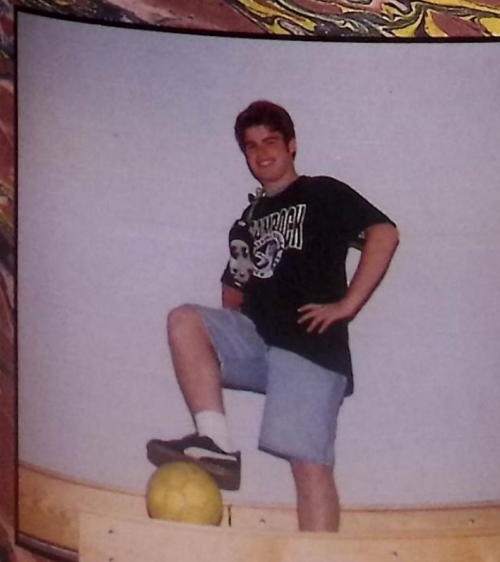

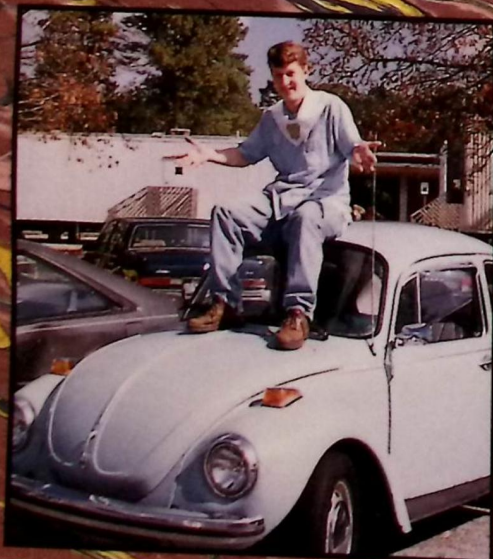

Egan West

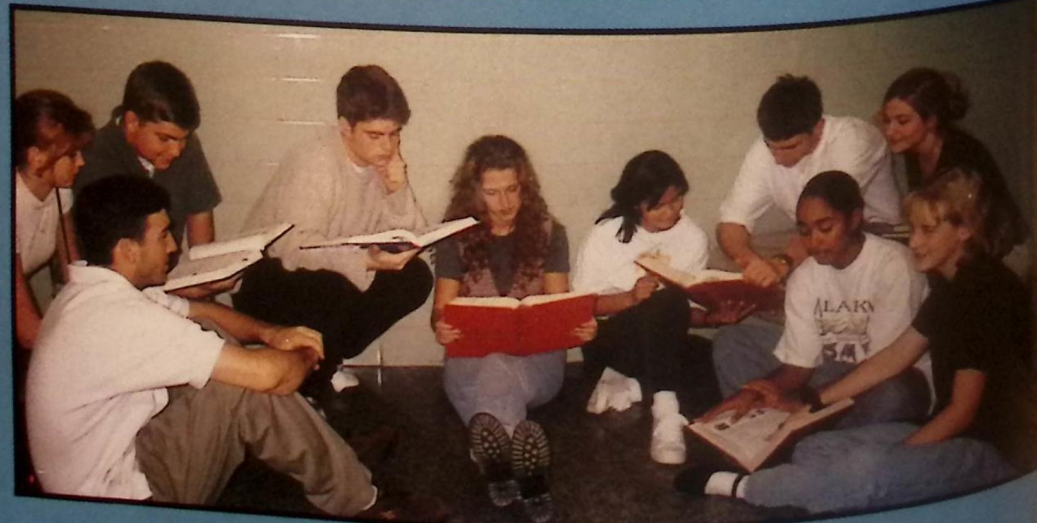

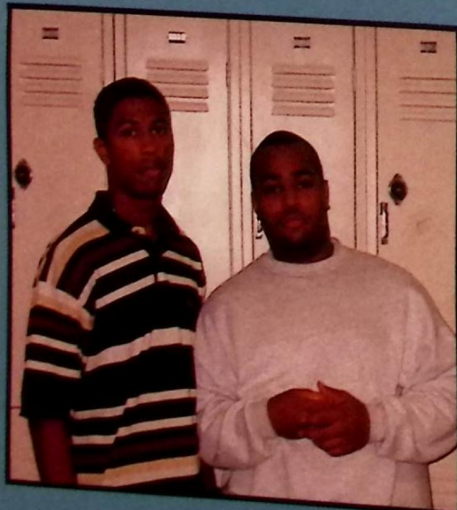

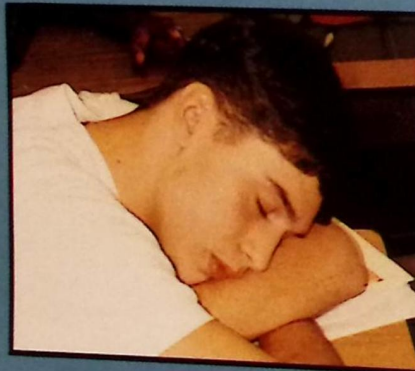

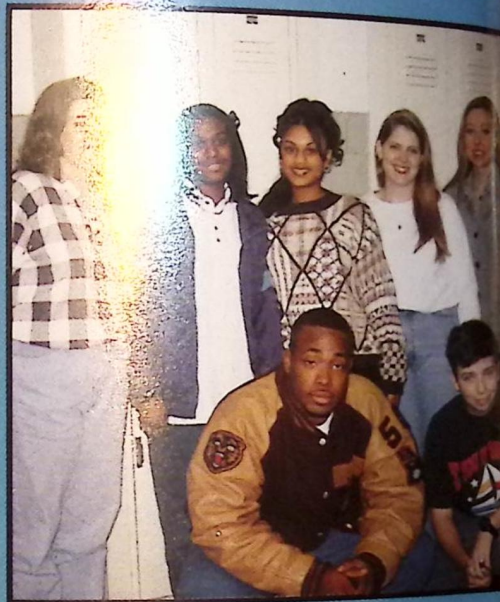

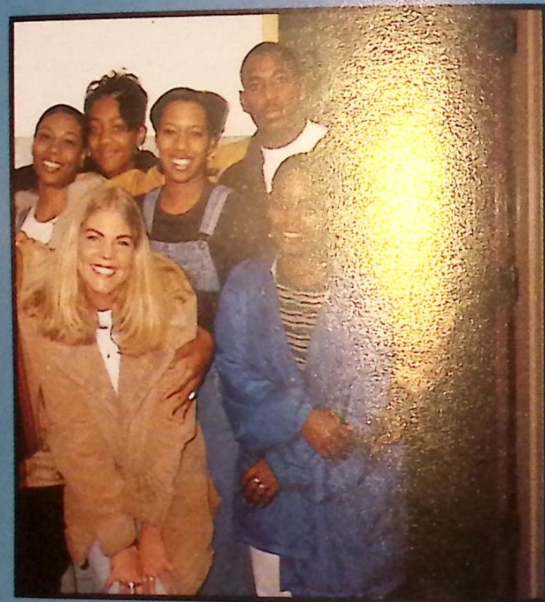

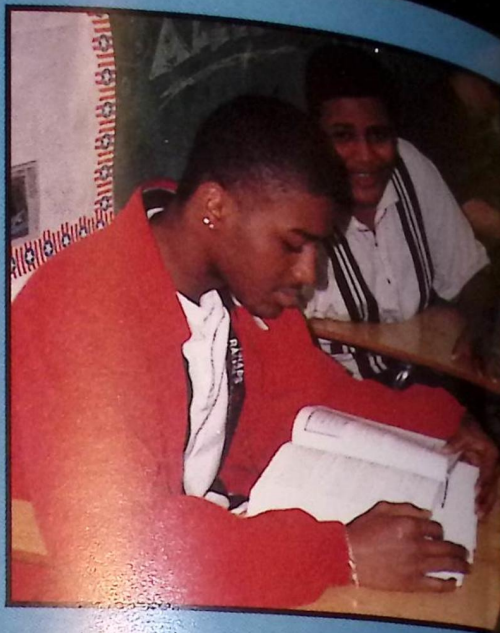

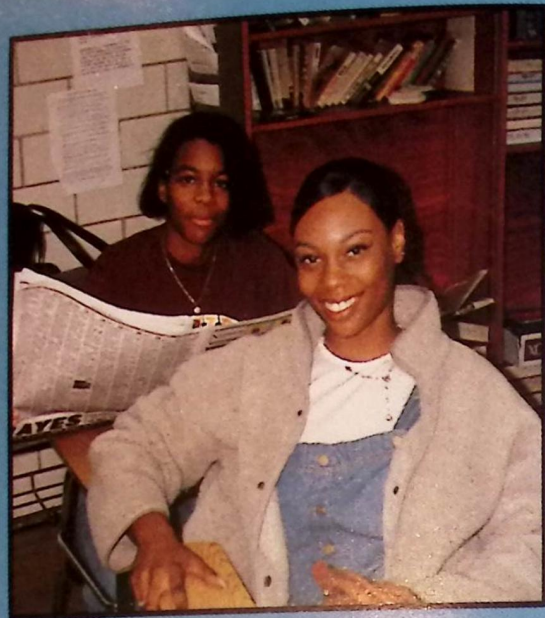

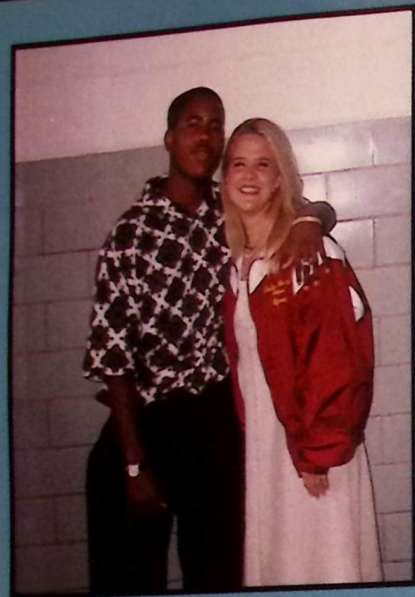

Egan West, a former Shamrock student, has enjoyed meeting new people at Tucker. He admires honesty, cheerfulness, and extroversion in other people. This spirited and fun-loving individual enjoys shooting pool, playing soccer, visiting the beach, and making people smile. During high school, he has been involved in the Beta Club and the Tiger yearbook staff. In addition, Egan received the Most Valuable Defensive player award last year. When faced with adversity, Egan recognizes the seriousness of the situation and then tries to laugh to ease the tension while seeking a solution that will benefit everyone. He looks forward to attending UGA or Georgia State.

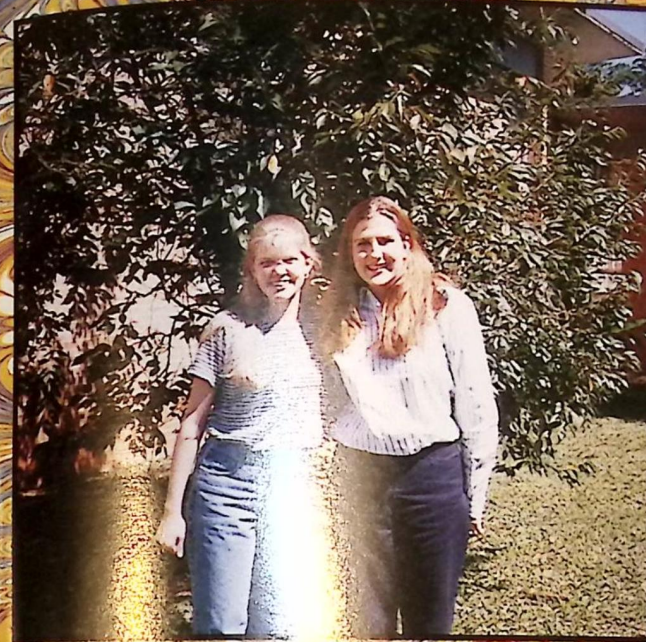

Gena Wilder

Gena Wilder is a very athletic, devoted, and caring person. Her parents' influence has greatly shaped the person she is now. When she is not playing basketball or softball, she enjoys playing the piano and listening to music. She has excelled in academics as well as in sports. Some of her honors include Georgia Certificate of Merit, Erskine Scholar, and selection to the All-Dekalb County Basketball team. She is also classes editor of the Tiger yearbook. She has found that her strength to endure adversity comes through her Christian faith. Her future plans include going to college and raising a family.

One Man's Doing: Ted Kaczynski is turned in by his brother and arrested in the nation's hunt for the Unabomber.

Another Four Years: President Bill Clinton is the first Democrat to be re-elected since Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The Year in Hollywood

101 Real Pups: Glenn Close stars as Cruella De Vil in Disney's live-action remake of the animated classic 101 Dalmations. Jeff Daniels co-stars as Roger, who is a video programmer this time, instead of a musician.

20 Years Later... The Force is still with us. Luke Skywalker, Princess Leia, and Han Solo are back in theaters in the digitally enhanced Star Wars trilogy.

An Eerie Portrait: Nicole Kidman plays a betrayed heiress in this adaptation of the Henry James classic, The Portrait of a Lady.

Independence Day: Will Smith plays a marine fighter pilot battling aliens in this fast-paced, action-packed flick.

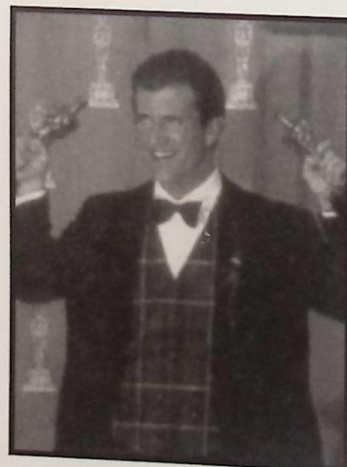

Emma: Gwyneth Paltrow plays the charming, meddlesome matchmaker and Jeremy Northam co-stars as Mr. Knightley in this witty interpretation of Jane Austen's classic comedy.

Cruisin' Towards a Comeback: Actor Tom Cruise makes two big movies during the year. Mission Impossible and Jerry Maguire.

Workaholic: Phenomenon is only one of a series of movies starring John Travolta this year. He also starred in Michael, Get Shorty, and Broken Arrow.

Mel Mops Up: Mel Gibson wins the 1996 Oscars for Best Director and Best Picture for Braveheart, a film about a thirteenth-century Scottish uprising.

Are They an Item?? Sandra Bullock and Matthew McConaughey attend the L.A. premiere of Bullock's new romantic drama, In Love and War.

Star-crossed Lovers: Claire Danes and Leonardo DiCaprio star in a present-day version of Shakespeare's tragedy Romeo and Juliet, where people happen to meet in iambic pentameter.

It Kept Its Promise: The much-anticipated rock opera Evita is a huge success. Madonna, the Best Actress at the Golden Globe Awards, is seen here with co-stars Jonathan Pryce and Antonio Banderas.

On Television

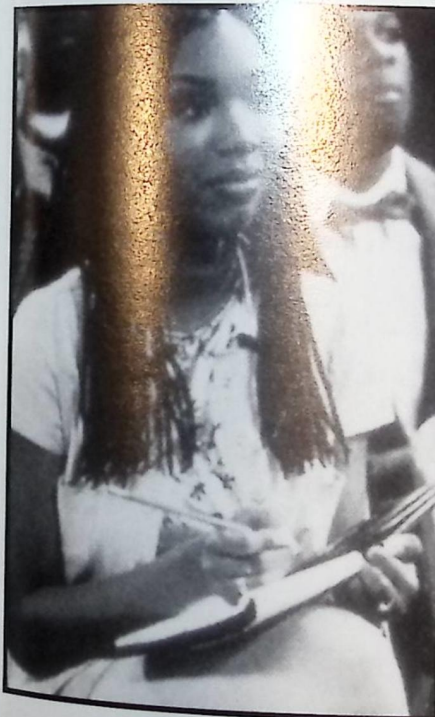

Classified Information: Gillian Anderson and David Duchovny play FBI agents in the new series, The X-Files.

A Star is Born: Brandy now stars in the hit TV series Moesha, a program that deals with teenage concerns.

As If! Actresses Rachel Blanchard, Stacey Dash, and Elisa Donovan are fashion-crazed teenagers who are totally clueless in this take-off from the hit movie.

Tickle-me-Elmo: Rosie O'Donnell has saved daytime TV from itself by taking out the trashy topics and talking nice.

Where's the Broom? Actress Melissa Joan Hart has cast spells on TV audiences in her new role as Sabrina, the Teenage Witch.

A New Spin on TV: For his role in Spin City, Michael J. Fox ties with Bill Cosby for favorite male actor in a new series at the People's Choice Awards.

Still Going Strong: After seven seasons, Family Matters is this season's longest-running black prime-time series and as popular as ever.

Music in Review

Anything But Blue! Fourteen-year-old country music sensation LeAnn Rimes wins two Grammys, one being Best New Artist.

No Doubt About It! No Doubt, led by Gwen Stefani, releases its first album Tragic Kingdom which has a hit song "Don't Speak".

Definitely Not Trash! Alternative band Garbage makes it big with its song "#1 Crush," off the Romeo & Juliet soundtrack.

A-14 K Diamond: Folk rock singer Jewel Kilcher, 22, hits it off with her debut album Pieces of You.

Short but Sweet: The Artist formerly known as Prince holds on even after the death of his baby.

Hip-Hop Trio: The Fugees win a Grammy for their platinum-selling album The Score.

Smashing Their Way to the Top: The Cardigans win a Grammy in Hard Rock Performance for "Bullet with Butterknife".

Not the Clothing: The Cardigans make their way up the charts with their song "Love Fool."

Young Country: Twenty-two year old Bryan White has taken Nashville by storm and has stolen the hearts of young teens everywhere.

The New Toni: Toni Braxton makes a comeback with her release of Secrets and wins two Grammys for Female Pop Vocal Performance and Female R & B Performance.

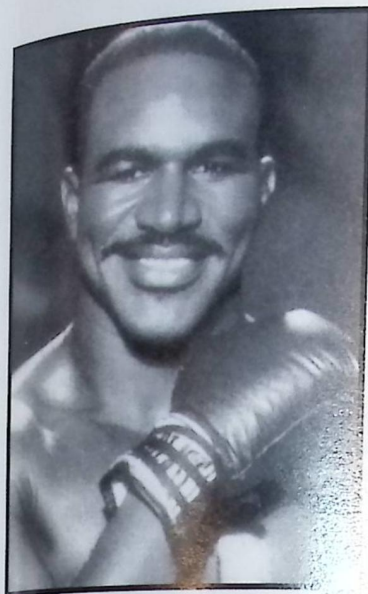

Head Over Feet: Alanis Morissette releases her popular album Jagged Little Pill.

Speechless: Canadian singer Celine Dion wins two Grammys for her album Falling Into You.

Sports/Olympics

Good Guy Wins Again: Evander Holyfield defeats Mike Tyson in the much-hyped turn of Tyson after Tyson's prison sentence.

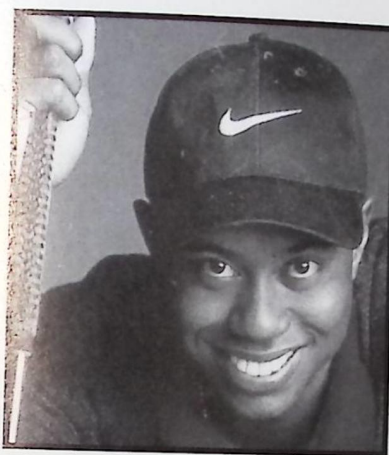

Go Long, Rison: Quarterback Brett Favre and his Green Bay Packers beat New England in the Super Bowl.

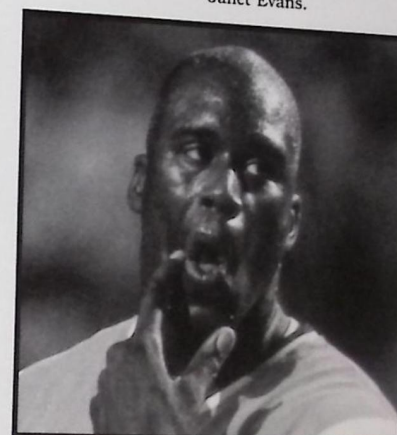

Starlet Michelle Smith and Team USA win the gold as the first-ever softball team in the Summer Games.

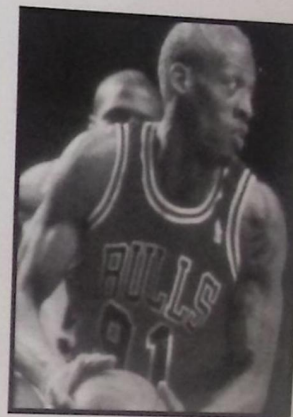

Gold! The women's gymnastics team pulls through with the help of a gutsy Kerri Strug.

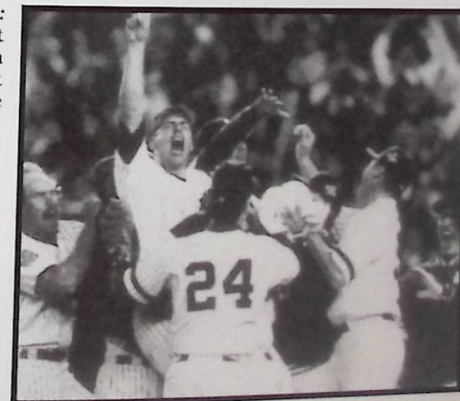

I am Tiger Woods: The young golfer has become a positive role model for America's youth.

No More Magic in Orlando: Shaquille O'Neal heads cross-country to L.A., Hollywood, and--oh, yeah--the Lakers.

Good as I Wanna Be: The notorious Dennis Rodman plays a major role in the Bulls' NBA Championship.

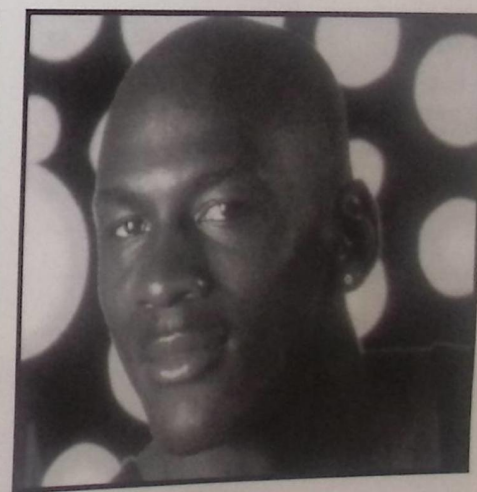

Not This Time: The Yanks go to war with the South again, and, well, the Braves come out second in the World Series.

What an Over-paid Brat: Baltimore's Roberto Alomar gets into a spit spat with umpire John Hirschbeck.

Magic Moment: Muhammed Ali gets the flame from retiring swimmer Janet Evans.

The Immortal No. 23: Michael Jordan leads the NBA in scoring--again--and paces the Bulls to a record 72 wins this season.

Hoop Dreams: Sheryl Swoopes leads the Olympic team to glory and plays in the new women's professional league.

A Tribute

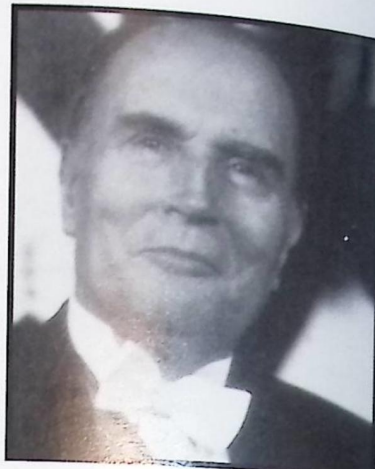

ELLA FITZGERALD, 79: Preeminent jazz vocalist of her generation, who was dubbed "First Lady of Song."

Ikeranda Carter

My Dearest Ikeranda, You have worked long and hard with one goal in mind. You should be very pleased with what you have accomplished. I am. Ikeranda, maybe, just maybe in the back, behind the crowds, the one who would die rather than live without you will remove his pierced hands from his heavenly robe and applaud.

Love,
Mom

Ann Clark

To the light of my life, you are all that is beautiful and true and strong. Stay on your path. It is the right one.

Love forever,
Mama

Keith Dodson

Set your goals high and soar like an eagle...

Love and prayers,
Mother and Dad,
Robb, Kim, and Brooke

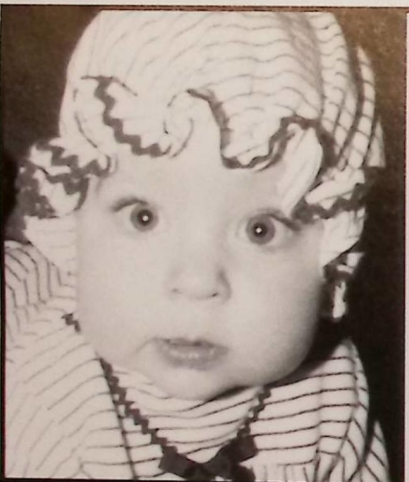

Tarrence Skylark

Life is going to be a challenge. There will be rough times, mountains to climb, obstacles to resolve, disappointments to accept, and promises to keep to yourself. Now you know what to expect so prepare yourself. The only way to get to where you want to be is to do what needs to be done. Do it!

Melanie Smith

To my fat, cute, baby daughter, whom I love very much, and who has been a joy most of the time and a frustration at others. I send you out into the world with all the love, joy, and hope a mother can give her daughter.

Miranda Self

Congratulations! We are very proud of you. May all your dreams come true, and may God bless all you do.

Love,
Dad and Jen

Brad Shadrix

These past eighteen years have been filled with much joy, thanks to you. We are so proud of the wonderful person you've become.

Love,
Mom

Brandon Stovall

Our darling Brandon, life will never be the same without you. We miss your smile and the ring of your laughter every minute of the day. You will always be everything we could desire in a son, and we will always be proud of the man you were becoming.

Your friends have been a real source of strength for us. We will be together again one day. Until that time, we will continue to love and miss you so.
Mom, Dad, Ashley, and Bo

Raheem Welsh

Son, you were born to win. Never stop thinking, speaking, and acting like a winner. Keeping the awareness of your spiritual nature is the highest priority.

Love,
Mom

Brian Weston

You are as special today as you were as a baby. We are proud of you and expect great things from you--spiritually, physically, and mentally.

Jennifer Terry

You put your nose in a book at the age of one and haven't taken it out since. You're a better person for it.

Congratulations,
Dad, Mom, and Trevor

Gregory Teyf

Greg, the years passed by so quickly! Please take the best, learn from the worst, and make each day count!

We love you,
Dad, and Khanan

Jack Wheatley
